More Comments:

1. I don't think I ever answered your question about where some of the older photos were taken. For most of them, I haven't a clue. However, if you look at photo 12 you will see Aunt Cleo's house, which is in some of the other photos as well. I believe photo 50 was taken at the Speedwell home of Andrew and Martha Dellar Turner.

2. Ed, I am so excited! My brain finally kicked into gear and I figured something out. Keep in mind that some family members were only known or spoken of during my early childhood and those memories at my age are somewhat unreliable. My mom's sister Beatrice was such a non-reality to me that I had actually forgotten that my mom had a sister other than Aunt Cleo. If I ever met her I have no recall of it. Anyway, if you go back to Sheet 19 to the top middle photo there was an unidentified couple standing to the right of Uncle Albert and Aunt Cleo. I believe the couple is Clyde Johnson and Beatrice Turner Johnson. What caused it to click in my mind was studying the Turner family photo on the bottom of Sheet 33. If you go back and look at that picture you will see standing in the back: Uncle Hobart, my mom, Aunt Cleo, Aunt Beatrice, and Uncle Hugh. She might be in other unidentified photos, and Clyde might be, too. I haven't had time to go back and search now that I know what face to look for in the photos. She was forgotten by me because she was rarely mentioned by anyone in the family. I don't know the story behind that, but I seem to remember that the family did not like or approve of Clyde so she distanced herself from them. I don't think Aunt Cleo had much contact with her, either, but keep in mind this is speculation and could be incorrect. Susie might know more than I. I am fairly certain that I have made correct identification, though, and that is a good feeling. She deserves to be remembered and cherished on our family tree.

Ed, I wish you and the family a wonderful Easter. Love, Judy
